Individual Risk Assessment for COVID-19 Academic and Formation Year 2021 - 2022

The purpose of this form is to provide an active screening for potential risks of COVID 19 with anyone entering the property and building of the Seminary of Christ the King and to ensure the safety and wellbeing of everyone.

This screening is not intended to take the place of medical advice, diagnosis or treatment.

This Individual Risk Assessment is to help assist The Rector, Faculty and Staff to assess the seminarians' fitness to participate in the academic work and formation work in in-person sessions during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Those with symptoms related to pre-existing conditions or allergies can still participate in the in-person sessions.

If you are a Seminarian who is commuting from outside the property, unlike in house residents, this page provides a daily log of individual risk assessments. Review the Individual Risk Assessment on the preceding page.

Provided you are still able to answer “No” to each of the questions, sign and date this page to acknowledge that you have completed the Individual Risk Assessment. Retain these pages with you and have them available each time you enter the Seminary property for class.

You are required to present this page to your instructor at each new session, if you have been off the property and answer the risk assessment questions.

If you answered “Yes” to any of the questions, you are not permitted to attend and you must self-isolate.
