Student Supervision Policy

Children are to be kept under discipline at all times and by everyone. Therefore, let the younger honor their elders, and the older love the younger. RB Ch. 58

Every student at the seminary of Christ the King has the right to be accompanied by the teachers, prefects and superiors of the seminary community.

Times and places of regular supervision – times of prayer, study, meals, afternoon and evening recreation, evening and morning dormitory are appointed on a yearly basis by the Abbot of the monastery.

During recreational times on weekends students are permitted the use of the grounds of and around the seminary as specified in #19-21 of the seminary guide book.

During seminary outings the students should be accompanied by at least two adult prefects. Other practices, as mentioned in Field Trips & Excursions Policy.
